More Than Just a Game London

London, UK

May 8, 2025

MSK Partner Theresa Bowman is speaking on the panel, "Pushing Boundaries," at More Than Just a Game London on May 8, 2025.

About the panel...

The video game industry has a long track record of pushing boundaries when it comes to growth, innovation and creativity. How can it continue to do so responsibly, ensuring that progress benefits everyone while maintaining trust and ethical integrity? This panel dives into the bold moves that are shaping the future of gaming, examining how both private and public ecosystems can drive responsible innovation. Discussions will include the role of self-regulation in fostering ethical growth, how cultural differences influence the approach to pushing boundaries, and the impact of intellectual property laws in balancing creativity with protection.

Speakers:

Rich Corken, UKIPO

Evangelia Nitti, Improbable

Theresa Bowman, Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp LLP
