

---

unraveling ai's impact on intellectual property: expert perspectives

---

April 25, 2024

Event Sponsor: American Bar Association

Lindsay Edelstein is moderating the panel, "Unraveling AI's Impact on Intellectual Property: Expert Perspectives," hosted virtually by the American Bar Association on April 25, 2024.

About the panel...

Lindsay Edelstein, of Mitchell Silberberg, and Knupp, will moderate this discussion featuring, Ekta Oza of Linklaters, Claudia Ray of Kirkland & Ellis, and Louise Nemschoff of Nemschoff Law Offices. Specifically, our panel will dive into the intricacies of pending cases, and offer insights into the pivotal role played by WGA, SAG-AFTRA and others in negotiating the evolving relationship between AI technologies and creative industries. The panel will also explore how the European Union is taking the lead in navigating this new frontier, setting standards and regulations that will influence the global AI landscape.

Click here to register

attorneys

Lindsay R. Edelstein

practice areas

Artificial Intelligence (AI) intellectual property specialties