

msk opens washington, dc office

March 28, 2002

Los Angeles, March 28, 2002 – Thomas P. Lambert, Managing Partner of Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp LLP, announced the opening of a Washington, D.C., office. The MSK office is located at 2300 M Street NW, Suite 800, Washington D.C. 20037.

The office will be anchored by Steven B. Fabrizio, a partner in the MSK Litigation and Intellectual Property and Technology groups, who until recently was Senior Vice President of Legal and Business Affairs for the Recording Industry Association of America, and Robert Wise, a partner in the Entertainment and New Media Group and a former senior executive with Discovery Communications.

Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp LLP, founded in 1908, is Los Angeles' premier mid-size law firm, with practice groups in entertainment and new media, intellectual property and technology, complex litigation, labor and employment, corporate and business transactions, environmental law, immigration, benefits, tax and family wealth planning.

practice areas

entertainment & ip litigation
entertainment transactions