

steven krone joins msk as of counsel

December 8, 2010

Former President and Chief Operating Officer of Village Roadshow Pictures Entertainment (VRP), Steven Krone joined the Digital Media & Interactive Entertainment practice group at MSK and will represent entertainment, media and convergence companies, financial institutions, investors and financiers, and individual creative artists and executives in connection with all aspects of the financing, development, production, acquisition, distribution and exploitation of motion pictures, television, video games, online and other content. He will continue to serve as Director of the Biederman Entertainment and Media Law Institute at Southwestern Law School.

attorneys

Steven G. Krone

practice areas

entertainment & ip litigation entertainment transactions