LOS ANGELES, CA – Managing Partner Thomas Lambert is pleased to announce that Lucia Coyoca has joined Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp LLP as a partner in the firm's Litigation Department and as Chair of the firm's Diversity Committee.

Coyoca first joined Mitchell Silberberg in 1988 and made partner in 1994. Coyoca left Mitchell Silberberg in 2000 for Alschuler Grossman where she served as co-head of the Entertainment Litigation Department and as an elected member of the firm's Executive & Compensation Committees. Today Coyoca returns to Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp LLP as a partner in its Litigation Department and chair of its Diversity Committee. Coyoca will also be active in Mitchell Silberberg's Intellectual Property & Technology and Entertainment Practice Groups.

Thomas Lambert, Managing Partner of Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp said, "We are extremely pleased to welcome Lucia back. She is a top-notch litigator with a significant and growing list of entertainment and insurance industry clients."

Coyoca represents major motion picture studios, insurance companies and other business interests with complex litigation concerns within and related to the entertainment industry including copyright and contingent compensation disputes.

"I'm looking forward to working again with my friends and colleagues at Mitchell Silberberg," said Coyoca. "The firm is very well positioned to support the continued growth of my practice. I'm also excited to take on my new leadership role in building Mitchell Silberberg's diversity program."
