

s.t.a.k.e. award scholarship for social entrepreneurship

May 19, 2009

Sub City Non-Profit Organization, the charity arm of independent record label Hopeless Records, has joined S.T.A.K.E. (Sharing, Training, Assistance, Knowledge, and Education) Club and Pepperdine University in creating a $10,000 scholarship program for young individuals who have the talent but not the means to bring their world-changing ideas into reality.

Eric German, a founding member of S.T.A.K.E., joins the organization in awarding the 2009/2010 scholarship to Pepperdine law and masters student Benjamin Anderson.
