

susan kohn ross named district export council of southern california chair

December 10, 2013

Susan Kohn Ross was recently appointed Chair of the District Export Council of Southern California (DECSC) for the term 2014-2015, at the organization's December 10 meeting (pictured here).

In her role as Chairwoman, Ross will be charged with overseeing the execution of DECSC's various tactical initiatives and planning for the long-term success of the organization, including efforts to expand U.S. exports which contribute greatly to the health of the U.S. economy.

"I'm very excited and honored to accept this appointment and look forward to collaborating with my colleagues in various industries throughout Southern California to promote greater understanding of how U.S. businesses can increase their global exports," said Ross. "My predecessor, Gary Fox, did a fantastic job in his role as Chairman. I hope to continue his good work leading DECSC in 2014 and 2015."
