

frida glucoft part of pacific council delegation to france

November 4, 2010

MSK Immigration Chair Frida Glucoft was among 29 Pacific Council on International Policy members invited by U.S. Ambassador to France Charles H. Rivkin to join in a series of high level discussions concerning foreign policy matters, including cultural, historical and political relations between the U.S. and France. Included in the October trip were meetings at the French Foreign Ministry, a briefing by Ambassador Rivkin and his team at the American Embassy, an exchange with French Institute of Foreign Relations President Thierry de Montbrial, and a meeting with top Sarkozy advisor Jean-David Levitte.
