

msk takes a bite out of the big apple with lateral partner gregory j. hessinger

March 24, 2016

Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp (MSK) is delighted to welcome partner, Greg Hessinger, to the New York office and the Labor and Employment practice group. Greg is a former partner at Curley, Hessinger & Johnsrud, LLP where he represented regional and national clients on various traditional labor and employment litigation matters. He specializes in collective bargaining, NLRB proceedings and labor arbitrations. Greg also counsels clients in the manufacturing, transportation, education and financial services sectors on employment contracts, separation agreements, union organizing, discrimination and other employment issues.

Greg served as the National Executive Director for the Screen Actors Guild (SAG) and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (AFTRA) and offers unique experience in the representation of clients in the advertising, entertainment and media industries.

"We are thrilled to be adding someone of Greg's exemplary stature to our labor and employment practice, as well as New York office," said firm Chairman, Kevin Gaut. "Getting someone of his experience adds to our reputation for excellence and gives us a stronger foothold in New York to better serve our clients," added Mr. Gaut.

practice areas

employment litigation & counseling

labor & employment

labor litigation & counseling