

nimish patel recognized among most influential minority lawyers

September 12, 2016

In a supplement published on September 12, 2016, the Los Angeles Business Journal recognized Vice Chairman, Nimish Patel, among the Most Influential Minority Lawyers in Los Angeles.

The inaugural list honors 40 "stellar minority lawyers in the LA region," highlighting their recent successes in both the law and legal diversity. The LABJ highlighted Ms. Grant as a trailblazer for diversity at MSK and the broader community, as well as a leader in labor & employment matters for which she consistently delivers superior litigation results. Mr. Patel was recognized for his long-standing reputation as a thought leader in corporate securities, and many recent successes in helping emerging companies secure capital to grow their business.
