From the article...

"Over the course of three decades, Adam Levin has championed a legal defense rooted in First Amendment principles for media companies in certain discrimination and wrongful termination cases, and has firmly established himself as the unquestioned counsel of choice for virtually every major entertainment-industry defendant. Studio general counsels has Levin's name at the top of the call sheet. Among his major accomplishments over the last year include his work on behalf of Warner Bros. in an employment discrimination case brought by a former camera operator on The Big Bang Theory. After the initial federal court action was dismissed, the plaintiff filed a state court action, which was ultimately dismissed."
