December 4, 2018

MSK New York Managing Partner Melanie Figueroa was featured in a profile article by Corporate Counsel in connection with her being named to their list of "2018 National Women in Law," which was announced in August of 2018.

The profile highlights Ms. Figueroa's route to the top and the advice she would give to young attorneys.

From the profile...

"As a young lawyer, you're often focused on and consumed by the legal issues in front of you every day, so it can be difficult to make the time to network and get to know people which is critical to building your practice. Young attorneys should be very deliberate about their networking activities early in their careers..."
