

marc mayer named to the national law journal's 2019 list of "intellectual property trailblazers"

March 1, 2019

Marc Mayer has been named to The National Law Journal's 2019 list of "Intellectual Property Trailblazers." Marc Mayer was highlighted for his work in the video game space, specifically on matters involving copyright enforcement, content protection, digital rights management, anti-piracy and other issues.

This issue is a special supplement that includes profiles of individuals who continue to make their mark in various aspects of legal work in the areas of patent, copyright, trademark, and trade secret law. While many of those recognized come at the regulatory and litigation processes from different angles, a common thread ties them together: each has shown a deep passion and perseverance in pursuit of their mission, having achieved remarkable successes along the way.
