October 2, 2019

MSK partners, Alesha Dominique and Emily Evitt, have been named to Profiles in Diversity Journal's 2019 "Women Worth Watching" list.

Profiles in Diversity Journal recognizes women from around the world who are continuing to make a difference in their organizations. They are high performing, driven leaders who create value for other women and the companies and organizations and agencies supporting them.

From the publication:

The 166 award recipients share their views on numerous topics dealing with the workplace—their individual experiences and prevailing wisdom. One common theme is a recognition just how important mentors are to career success. The awardees express their gratitude and talk about the impact mentorship can have on a woman's professional growth.
