

autumn ronda appointed to kidsave's board of trustees

June 1, 2020

Kidsave, a non-profit organization who's mission is to advocate for older orphans and foster kids, announced Autumn Ronda's appointment to the Board of Trustees on June 1, 2020.

From the press release published by Kidsave:

"Autumn's commitment in dedication to children our program is seen and felt through her volunteer work each year,' said Randi Thompson, Kidsave CEO, President, and Co-Founder. 'This commitment, along with her innovative spirit, and extensive experience in law and nonprofit board leadership make her an excellent addition to our Board."
