

christine lepera featured in billboard's 2020 "women in music executives" list

Billboard

December 3, 2020

Christine Lepera has been featured in Billboard's 2020 "Women In Music Executives" list published on December 3, 2020. The list spotlights more than 200 female executives and activists changing the industry.

From the article...

The litigator has been involved in high-profile cases for Dr. Luke and Katy Perry and has since taken on new clients Post Malone, whom she represented in a joint authorship and copyright dispute involving his Hot 100 No. 1 single "Circles," and the late Juice WRLD in a recently dismissed copyright case brought by the rock band Yellowcard related to his breakout single "Lucid Dreams."

How I've Managed the Stress of the Pandemic: "I haven't figured that out yet."

View Full 2020 List

attorneys

Christine Lepera

practice areas

entertainment & ip litigation
intellectual property
litigation