

adam levin named to the hollywood reporter's 2021 "power lawyers" list

May 26, 2021

MSK Partner Adam Levin was named to The Hollywood Reporter's 2021 "Power Lawyers" list published on May 26, 2021. The list, in its 15th edition, recognizes the top 100 attorneys in the entertainment industry.

From the article...

"There are very few lawyers who litigate in the same space that I litigate,' says Levin, who works with studios, networks and other companies on labor issues where creative expression intersects with civil rights. He's currently representing Fox and Disney against discrimination claims brought by former Simpsons composer Alf Clausen and, in a case involving a news producer fired for plagiarism, CNN. Levin also worked on UTA's lawsuit against the WGA alleging that its agent boycott was illegal; that came to a close in July when UTA became the first major agency to sign a deal with the guild."
