Christine Lepera was named to Variety's 2022 Legal Impact Report on April 20, 2022. This year's list showcases the "showbiz legal eagles" winning for their clients in court and guiding them through industry disruptions.

From the article...

A copyright expert and co-chair of the Entertainment and IP Litigation Practice Group, Lepera has worked as a litigator and strategic adviser on some of the music industry's landmark contemporary disputes. Most notably, Lepera served as Katy Perry's lead counsel during the "Dark Horse" copyright infringement suit, scoring a crucial and victorious reversal of a jury verdict on a motion for judgment as a matter of law.

Always something fresh: Despite decades of experience, Lepera says she enjoys learning new things every day and remains "intrigued by the complex legal doctrines that are front and center in the business."
