

msk promotes five lawyers to partner

Business Wire

December 19, 2022

Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp LLP announced today the election of five new partners, effective Jan. 1, 2023. The diverse group of lawyers spans several practice areas and offices.

"We are extremely excited about this new class of partners. Each of them has contributed to their respective practice areas, offices and our firm as a whole, and we look forward to seeing their continued success as partners," said MSK Co-Chair Lucia E. Coyoca.

Theresa B. Bowman (Washington, D.C.) practices in both the litigation and intellectual property groups. Bowman has experience navigating all aspects of complex litigation against both foreign sovereign and private multi-national entities in a wide variety of subject areas. Her practice focuses upon representation of clients in their efforts to enforce intellectual property rights worldwide. Bowman has been published in the Global Arbitration Review, the National Law Review, the International Society of Law's International Legal Materials and the World Financial Review. She received her J.D. from The George Washington University Law School and her B.S. from Northwestern University.

Anna Czege (Los Angeles) is being promoted to partner from her role as special counsel in the firm's corporate & business transactions group. Czege has 22 years of experience practicing general corporate law and advises public and private companies on mergers & acquisitions, securities law, and corporate governance. She received her J.D. from Columbia Law School and her B.S. from the University of Maryland.

Mark C. Humphrey (Los Angeles) is a member of the firm's litigation group. Humphrey's practice is focused on commercial litigation with an emphasis on contractual and commercial disputes, video games, entertainment and intellectual property. He received his J.D. from Southwestern Law School and his B.A. from the University of California, Los Angeles.
