

msk "power lawyers" among hollywood's 100 fiercest advocates

July 16, 2010

The Hollywood Reporter has named Russell Frackman and William Cole to its 2010 "Power Lawyer" list of attorneys "most influencing the entertainment business." THR noted that since the famed 1984 Betamax case, Frackman "has been involved in the cases that define current copyright law. Cole's work on behalf of major studios in high-profile labor matters and behind-the-scenes preparation for Guild and union negotiations was also recognized.

attorneys

William Cole
Russell J. Frackman

practice areas

intellectual property