

msk advises lasalle bank in $150 million senior financing

October 3, 2008

Anthony Adler, Alan Pepper and Daniel Leon represented LaSalle Bank, a wholly owned subsidiary of Bank of America, in structuring and closing on a senior debt facility for Pinnacle Security in the form of a revolving credit facility of up to $150 million from LaSalle and Wells Fargo Foothill, a part of Wells Fargo Bank. Pinnacle, a leading provider of residential and commercial security systems, will retain its monitoring contracts under this new financing as well as accelerate its global growth plans.
