MSK Partner Christine Lepera was named to Variety's 2024 "Women's Impact Report: New York" list, published on April 30, 2024. The annual list recognizes the women who have made an impact on New York's $60 billion entertainment industry over the last year.

From the article...

"Lepera has been a major force in the music world, protecting artists from accusations of plagiarism. In recent months, the veteran attorney won copyright infringement cases for Dua Lipa and Warner Music Group for the song "Levitating," and Timbaland and other defendants for the songs "Paper Chase" and "Toe2Toe" She also successfully resolved producer Dr. Luke's nine-year legal battle with singer Kesha and won a preliminary injunction for Daryl Hall, preventing his longtime musical partner John Oates from selling his half of their jointly held assets without Hall's consent."
