From the guide...

"Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp delivers one of the country's leading entertainment practices, with a fully integrated trademark and brand protection practice. The bi-coastal Eleanor Lackman chairs the trademark prosecution group and co-chairs the outfit's entertainment and IP litigation offering, as well as its video game and interactive media side. 'Eleanor has deep knowledge and expertise. She is practical and succinct in advice and client communications. She is strategic and sharp in enforcement matters. Eleanor goes above and beyond, and will look for relevant examples to support the position being advocated, and also to put matters into context and help to manage client expectations. It is a pleasure working with Eleanor, and one can be confident
