

gold discusses surge in security company m&as with the daily deal

April 15, 2010

MSK Corporate Practice Chair, Les Gold, was quoted in The Daily Deal's "Safety in Numbers" story on April 12, 2010, about the significant M&A activities of the three largest security systems companies thus far in 2010. Gold anticipates dealflow will "increase significantly for a number of reasons," including turnover among long-term business owners and technological advancements.

attorneys

Lessing E. Gold

practice areas

corporate & business
transactions

corporate governance

cross-border practice

general corporate law

mergers & acquisitions

security alarm & monitoring technology