

---

metalitz examines anti-counterfeiting trade agreement (acta) provisions

---

July 7, 2010

Steven Metalitz was quoted extensively in a July 1st Broadband.com article regarding recent changes suggested to the international Anti-Counterfeiting Trade Agreement (ACTA) by a coalition of 10 tech companies and rights groups. Metalitz, who represents some of the world's largest content and software providers, believes the proposed changes would render copyright enforcement online ineffective.

practice areas

entertainment & ip litigation intellectual property
trademarks & brands