

msk named to national law journal's 2010 "midsize hot list"

July 12, 2010

MSK is among 20 firms from across the U.S. to have been named to the National Law Journal's recently released 2010 "Midsize Hot List" of firms that "demonstrated what it takes to get ahead" and "the ability to snag big clients by delivering specialized services." The NLJ recognized MSK's prominence in the entertainment industry, representing clients in the movie, television, video, music, animation, interactive gaming and game software businesses.

practice areas

intellectual property