

les gold notes importance of appellate reversal of adt v. synnex

September 10, 2007

The appellate division of the NJ Superior Court recently reversed a lower court ruling in finding the exculpatory clause in a contract for the sale of a burglar alarm system, requiring the buyer to rely solely on its own insurance for any loss from theft, is not contrary to public policy.

MSK Corporate Practice Chair, Les Gold, praised the decision and noted its importance to the security alarm industry.
