

su ross featured in compliance week interview

February 4, 2016

By the end of 2016, the Automated Commercial Environment (ACE) will become the primary system through which the trade community will report all cargo shipment details. Su Ross spoke with Compliance Week regarding the challenges posed by the the ACE implementation and the effect it will have on import and export processes.

View Interview (subscription required)

attorneys

Susan Kohn Ross

practice areas

international trade