

steve metalitz interviewed by inside counsel

October 23, 2008

Steve Metalitz, who also serves as President of the Intellectual Property Constituency of the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN), was interviewed by Inside Counsel concerning the plan to go from 21 to a nearly infinite number of top level domains (TLDs) and what it may mean for trademark owners.

practice areas

entertainment & ip litigation intellectual property
trademarks & brands