Yakub Hazzard was mentioned and quoted in The Hollywood Reporter's "Rep Sheet Roundup" column on October 16, 2017 for his return to Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp.

From the column:

"MSK's entertainment group is one of the top legal practices in the world, so it is both a pleasure and an exceptional opportunity to head back to where I started my legal career," Hazzard said in a statement. "I was privileged to see MSK guide music-industry clients through an intense period of disruption. With my experience at NBCUniversal, for which I am very thankful, I look forward to helping the firm and its clients navigate another exciting period of change now sweeping across film, television, video gaming and other forms of entertainment."
