

steve metalitz and matthew williams mentioned in law360

December 6, 2011

Steve Metalitz and Matthew Williams were mentioned in the article, "Trade Groups Want To Join Righthaven Case In 9th Circ.," published by Law360 on December 6, 2011.

The article describes in detail how trade groups, representing book publishers and music companies, asked the Ninth Circuit to let them chime in on Righthaven LLC's appeal of the dismissal of its copyright infringement case against a blogger for posting a Las Vegas Review-Journal article without permission. Steve Metalitz and Matthew Williams were mentioned for their work representing AAP and RIAA.

View Full Article (subscription required)

practice areas

entertainment transactions
intellectual property