

msk mentioned in law360

May 11, 2010

Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp LLP were mentioned in the article, "ASCAP, Disney Support Viacom Against YouTube," published by Law360 on May 11, 2010.

The article discusses how a group of organizations and companies filed an amicus brief on the side of Viacom in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York. The amici argued that it was important for the court to decide how broad an immunity providers of online services enjoy from copyright claims over infringement committed by their users under the Digital Millennium Copyright Act. MSK was mentioned for our work representing the WLF.

View Full Article (subscription required)

practice areas

entertainment transactions

intellectual property