

arina shulga mentioned in bloomberg law

Bloomberg Law

February 22, 2019

New MSK Partner, Arina Shulga was mentioned in Bloomberg Law's Big Law Business "Wake Up Call" column on her recent move from Ross & Shulga PLLC to MSK.

Arina joined MSK on February 1, 2019 bringing extensive experience in startup law, securities offerings, cross-border transactions, corporate governance, private and public company representation, business entity formation, licensing, contracts and employment-related agreements. She is experienced with advising small to mid-sized companies on formation, contract review and negotiation, private placement of securities, intellectual property matters and internal governance issues.

View Full Article

practice areas

capital markets & securities corporate & business transactions corporate governance crypto assets & blockchain technology early-stage private company financing general corporate law