MSK partner, Jeff Eisen was quoted in the article, "Lagerfeld's Cat Won't Get Her Paws on His Fortune. France Will.," published by Bloomberg BNA on February 27, 2019.

From the article..

"Choupette, the pampered Birman cat of late fashion designer Karl Lagerfeld, won't directly be getting her furry paws on his fortune.

But France will. Maybe Germany and the U.S., too.

The will of the former Chanel and Fendi creative director, who died last week in France at age 85, is confidential under German and French law. But it has been widely speculated that the German designer left a fraction of his $200 million estate to his darling cat."
