

su ross quoted in law360 on cbp proposal

August 13, 2019

Su Ross was quoted in the article, "CBP Vetting Proposal Could Pose Hurdles For Brokers," published by Law360 on August 13, 2019. The article covers a recent proposal from U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) meant to crack down on importer fraud, which "could expose customs brokers to unrealistic vetting procedures and steep penalties for minor infractions."

From the article...

"I think that there's some real lack of understanding on Customs' part in terms of the availability of some of the information or where that information is best obtained," said Susan Kohn Ross, a partner at Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp LLP who represents importers, exporters and brokers..."
