MSK Partner Jonathan Turner was quoted in the article, "NLRB Offices Grapple With Virus Layoffs' Effect On Unit Notes," published by Law360 on November 20, 2020.

From the article...

"Jonathan Turner of Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp LLP also said he was doubtful that the regional director would have reached the same conclusion now, noting that the decision was made before we saw the "moving target of the continual spike" in COVID-19 cases.

'No one can reasonably look at this and say we've got control over this,' Turner said. 'And so I don't think that we come out with the same result today with that regional director.'
