David Gordon

MSK Partner David Gordon was quoted in the article, "Supreme Court Lets Navy Consider COVID-19 Vaccination Status in Assignment Decisions," published by SHRM on March 28, 2022.

From the article...

"If you are a military service member, you should assume that choosing not to get vaccinated will have a major impact on your ability to continue in your role," said David Gordon, an attorney with Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp in New York City. "If the military decides you are ineligible for a role based on your vaccination status, don't count on the court system coming to your rescue."
