MSK Partner Robert Lowe was quoted in the article, "5 ERISA Cases To Keep An Eye On In 2023," published by Law360 on January 2, 2023.

From the article...

"Lowe said the industry groups were arguing — correctly, in his view — that the workers were faulting the TDF funds performance rather than focusing on whether the law has been broken.

"They get right to the point that basically, this is not ERISA law. ERISA law is about judging the process; it's not about looking through the rearview mirror with 20/20 hindsight as to whether you happened to make the best choice," Lowe said."
