MSK partners Marc Mayer and Mark Humphrey were mentioned in the article, "Activision files lawsuit against creator of Call of Duty hacking software," published by GamesIndustry.biz on May 13, 2025, for their representation of Activision in a lawsuit filed against the creator of Call of Duty hacking softwares known as Lergware and GameHook.

From the article...

"Activision works very hard to ensure that CoD games offer consistently compelling player experiences so that customers will remain engaged in CoD games, continue to play them for sustained periods of time, and be excited about future releases," the company said.

The suit comes after Activision's win over cheats manufacturer EngineOwning last May, in which they secured $14.4 million in damages and nearly $300,000 in attorney fees.
