

msk tax practice recommended by the legal 500 2009

June 12, 2009

Respected the world over, The Legal 500 directory describes MSK's CA-based domestic tax practice as providing "excellent support to the firm's principal client following of privately-held companies, not-for-profit institutions and high-net-worth individuals and families...The practice strength in individual and estate tax planning is also very well developed." Practice co-chair David Newman is recognized as "an expert in state and individual tax planning," and partner Jeffrey Davine's experience handling a wide range of tax disputes is also lauded.
