Eleanor M. Lackman was featured in The American Lawyer's "How I Made It" series in the article "How I Made Practice Group Chair: 'Leadership Is About Getting the Best Out of the Overall Team,' Says Eleanor M. Lackman of Mitchell Silberberg & Knupp" published on December 15, 2023.

The Q&A article highlights Eleanor's recent appointment to co-chair of MSK's Intellectual Property practice group as well as how earning her MBA from UCLA Anderson School of Management in June 2023 prepared her for the role.

From the article...

"We have the premier interactive entertainment practice in the country and have a roster of leading clients who have trusted us for years. Especially considering how I admired MSK before it even had a local New York office, it is truly an honor to have the chance to help lead this large group—with a deep bench across three offices and an unparalleled history of excellence in IP—through its next chapter. Our reputation for our bicoastal IP depth is surging, and especially as a representative from one of our two east coast offices, it is a very exciting time to be coming on board in a practice chair role."
