

fusion and security: new screenings for cargo and travelers

U.S. Custom House Guide

September 2008

Frida Glucoft and Susan Kohn Ross co-authored this month's featured article in the U.S. Custom House Guide titled "Fusion and Security - The Latest Odd Couple." In the article, Frida and Su explain that as the security climate becomes more intense, so does the need for robust compliance programs across all business units and functions within a company and its supply chain.
