

california fair pay act's anticipated effect on litigation

California Minority Counsel Program's Summer Newsletter

August 2016

Jonathan Turner recently wrote the article, "California Fair Pay Act's Anticipated Effect on Litigation" which was published in California Minority Counsel Program's Summer Newsletter.

In this article, Jonathan focuses on the anticipated effects on litigation under the California Fair Pay Act and the surprisingly low discussion on the rights of employees and obligations of employers under this statute.
