

---

the secure line

---

James Madison Center for the Constitution Podcast

June 2017

Alexandra Meise will be a regular legal contributor to a new podcast sponsored by The James Madison Center for the Constitution called, "The Secure Line." Xander will be discussing legal issues in the news affecting foreign policy and civil and human rights matters.

"The Secure Line" is a podcast "looking to fill a niche in the foreign policy/national security space by exploring the interplay between politics and policy in national security and foreign policy in an accessible manner with non-traditional voices."

View Podcast

practice areas

international disputes

litigation