

when can the u.s. withdraw from a treaty? (co-author)

New Hampshire Bar News

July 19, 2017

Alexandra Meise and Albina Gasanbekova's Co-Authored the article, "Federal Practice, Bankruptcy & International Law: When Can the U.S. Withdraw from a Treaty?" which was published by the New Hampshire Bar Association on July 19, 2017.

From the article...

"President Donald J. Trump on June 1 announced that the United States would withdraw from the Paris Climate Agreement – a historic global treaty that commits nations to prevent catastrophic climate change by lowering their carbon emissions. A few weeks earlier, he announced plans to renegotiate the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA)."

View Publication

attorneys

Albina Gasanbekova

practice areas

litigation