

Public Entities

Our attorneys work closely with municipalities, school districts, police departments and other public entities to minimize risk and avoid litigation stemming from day to day operational and administrative issues. Our transactional, corporate and employment attorneys collaborate to offer a strategic team approach. We represent a diverse group of municipal and governmental client groups and serve as special and/or corporate counsel for the following:

- School Districts and Student Transportation Safety Professionals
- Municipalities
- Police Department
- Highway Departments, roadway design professionals, and roadway maintenance personnel
- Authorities established to provide facilities and/or financial support for professional or recreational sports, fine arts, public housing or other government supported activities
- Doctors, Nurses, and Hospitals in publicly owned/operated facilities
- Government operated nursing homes, extended care facilities, home health care services
- Park Districts and Public Recreation Facilities
- Public housing authorities and other classifications of federally subsidized housing agencies

Our attorneys have decades of experience advising municipalities in matters relating to governance and operations, drafting intergovernmental agreements, resolutions, regulations, policies and ordinances. We regularly negotiate government contracts with major corporations and energy suppliers. We are experienced in issues relating to civil rights defense, contract disputes, workers compensation and premises liability.

LABOR AND PERSONNEL

Our attorneys regularly advise clients on personnel matters including all aspects of the employment process from hiring through terminations and grievance hearings. We have broad experience representing municipal and public sector employers in labor issues ranging from contract negotiations, ULP defense and grievance hearings through arbitrations and organization campaigns. We have successfully negotiated police, fire, public works and administrative employee collective bargaining agreements.
