

Insurance Transactions

Our attorneys have considerable experience with assisting insurance companies and insurance brokers with complex transactions. For instance, we have represented insurance companies with their SEC filing as they prepare to go public and that have successfully completed unsolicited tender offers of target insurance companies. We have experience with "Form A" regulatory approvals by state insurance regulators of change-in-control transactions. In addition, our attorneys have experience in setting up insurance brokerage operations and are deeply versed in the business of the insurance industry.
