

Employment Advice & Counsel

Our Labor, Employment, Benefits & Immigration Service Group offers the experience and knowledge necessary to customize legal solutions for clients with regard to complex employment and labor law matters. We act as employer defense and monitoring counsel on a regional and national basis and provide clients with expedient advice and practical analysis, and when necessary, we develop a thorough litigation plan and a resolution objective.

Our attorneys counsel clients on the various defense and early resolution options available, and work to resolve disputes in the most expeditious and efficient manner. With this in mind, we believe in the concept of cost effective, 24/7 instant access.

In addition to defending employment and labor claims, we pride ourselves on our ability to counsel clients on developing and implementing solid business practices to avoid future labor controversy or litigation.

Our attorneys are well attuned to client expectations, the demands of running a business, and the day-to-day issues that today's business owners encounter. We are skilled at analyzing the impact that particular types of litigation may have on a client's business and reputation. Our attorneys are adept at defending and overseeing the defense of a multitude of labor disputes and employment-based claims while being mindful of corporate objectives and policies.
