Overview

Martha is the counsel the financial industry seeks to provide favorable resolutions from the routine to the most complex matters. Martha's considerable career experience allows her to propose best practices solutions. Having built long-standing relationships with her opposing counsel from many locations, she is able to thoroughly assess her clients' prospects before setting foot in the courtroom.

Martha's clients are most often secured lenders, unsecured creditors, creditors' committees, trustees, and debtors. She assists with the purchase of assets from insolvent entities inside and outside of bankruptcy. She also counsels clients regarding liens and commercial litigation matters in connection with her practice. Her counsel includes natural extensions of the creditors' rights and bankruptcy area of law including insolvency, corporate financial statements, real estate, compliance, environmental, agriculture, breaches of contract, and family-owned business issues. She has authored "friend of the court" briefs in the Supreme Court of the United States and the Indiana Supreme Court on bankruptcy and litigation issues.

Martha is board certified by the American Board of Certification in Business Bankruptcy and a fellow of the Indianapolis Bar Foundation. She is also a member of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis Finance Counsel, House of Delegates for the Indiana State Bar Association, and St. Vincent DePaul Changing Lives Mentoring Program. Martha chairs the HEAL Committee for the Indianapolis Bar Association.
