ASSOCIATE

Overview

Abbie's desire to help others led her to a career as a litigator. She thrives on managing multiple issues and her clients appreciate that she looks at each situation with their business strategy in mind.

As a member of the firm's Business Litigation Service Group, Abbie represents businesses and individuals in a variety of matters, including complex commercial litigation and contract disputes.

Prior to law school, Abbie worked in retail sales where she thrived on building long-term relationships with businesses. She draws on this experience as an attorney, taking the time to get to know her clients and learn what's important to them.
